

The area of the solution space dominated by solution A

